Commissioner Grantham relayed a discussion he took part in at the Rural Voices Meetings in Denver. Commissioner McFall conveyed the importance of the 50-billion-dollar cattle industry in Colorado and about the benefit of her resignation.

Commissioner Grantham noted that rural Colorado should keep an eye out for actions in Denver made by people who have little to no knowledge and background in rural issues and agriculture.

Commissioner Bell talked about her service in the Agricultural and Rural Affairs Steering Committee within the National Association of Counties (NACo). She relayed that she had proposed a policy that would urge Congress and State houses to pass resolutions or legislation to support and acknowledge the importance of the agriculture industry in America. She referred to Colorado as a test state and warned that some legislation that goes through Colorado will effectively spread to other states. Commissioner Bell said the chairman of the Steering Committee noted the significance of the resolution and conveyed that the Board is actively working for Fremont County.

2. Citizens who wish to address the Commissioners on a matter not scheduled on the agenda.

a. There were none.

OLD BUSINESS

1. None.

NEW BUSINESS

1. MS 21-008 DJW Subdivision Requesting approval for a minor subdivision that will create a total of 2 lots. The subject property is located in the Agricultural Rural Zone District, on R Street, Penrose. Schedule # 67000680
Representative: Matt Koch

Matt Koch explained that they are requesting a subdivision of one lot into two. Lot 1 will be 4.8 acres while Lot 2 will be 4.5 acres. They will be using septic systems serviced by the Penrose Water District. He added that there is a house proceeding on Lot 1. Contingencies from Planning & Zoning are as follows: a note on the plat for the Drainage Report to be required for Lot 2 at the time of construction for Lot 2 and an access permit for lot 2, which they are requesting to be waived until construction.

Planning & Zoning Simpleman reported that Fremont County DOT requires an access permit for Lot 2 and the Fremont County Project Engineer recommends waiving the requirement for the Storm Water Drainage Plan, but that both contingencies be deferred until the time of building. He added that there are no requirements from FCDPHE.

County Attorney Jackson pointed out that they have to record the plat to get a building permit.

Commissioner Bell clarified that both contingencies would be considered deferrals.

Commissioner McFall asked why a note on the plat will refer to the drainage requirement, but not to the access permit.

Mr. Koch said the only way to control the time of the drainage plan is to include notes on the plat referring to drainage at the time of building.

Commissioner McFall noted that the access permit is typical with the building permit anyway.

Commissioner Bell pointed out how straightforward the request is.

Commissioner McFall asked whether it is a deferral of the access permit and drainage requirement.

Brenda Jackson clarified that you cannot sell the lot until the plat is recorded, so there must be a note on the plat that refers to the deferrals.

Commissioner McFall moved to approve MS 21-008 DJW with a deferral of the access permit and drainage requirements for lot two until time of development as noted on the plat. Commissioner Grantham seconded the motion. Upon Vote: Commissioner McFall, aye; Commissioner Grantham, aye; Commissioner Bell, aye. The motion carried by unanimous consent.

2. Resolution No. 6 Approving precinct boundaries and numbers for Fremont County, Colorado

Clerk & Recorder Grantham explained that due to effects of Amendments Y and Z, the Census required the Clerk & Recorder's Election Division to update maps, legal descriptions, and precinct numbers to match Congressional and State Legislative redistricting. He clarified that the approval request regards the numbers of the precincts, not necessarily their boundaries, and added Fremont County's former and new Congressional District, Senate District, and House District numbers. He also described the digits that make up the precinct numbers. For more information on the Congressional and State district maps visit www.redistricting.colorado.gov and for information on Fremont County precincts visit www.fremontco.com under Elections Division.

Commissioner Bell commented on the size of the map and resolution.

Clerk & Recorder Grantham spoke about the help that Fremont County GIS Department provided and the keys on the precinct map. He noted that the precinct lines don't change until a population doubles, then thanked the GIS Department and Election Division for their work.

Commissioner Grantham clarified that the numbers are not referring to total population, but to active voters.

Clerk & Recorder Grantham explained that they can have 1500 active voters per precinct unless the BOCC approves up to 2000 per precinct and talked about the procedure for redrawing the precincts.

Commissioner Grantham said if they do an overall of the precincts, redrawing won't be until 2031.

Clerk & Recorder Grantham agreed redrawing won't be until 2031 if they wait for the statutory requirement.

Commissioner McFall asked whether some precincts may change when they redraw the Commissioner Districts.

Clerk & Recorder Grantham clarified that they want to consolidate the numbers so they don't have to do it again until 2031.

Commissioner Grantham said it's just for the numbering of the precincts.

Clerk & Recorder Grantham agreed with Commissioner Grantham.

Commissioner Bell asked whether Commissioner Redistricting will happen in 2023.

Clerk & Recorder Grantham confirmed that Commissioner Redistricting will happen in 2023.

She urged to spread the word about the program if approved and stressed that the deadline is set for the end of February.

Commissioner Bell clarified that the grant program is not competitive and you either qualify or you don't. She also urged people to spread the word about the program.

Commissioner McFall stated that they received the federal funds to help local businesses, non-profits, and organizations and pointed out that they waited for the final rule on allowable expenses from the U.S. Treasury before allocating any money.

Commissioner Grantham said the grant information can be found online.

County Manager Bryant confirmed that if approved, they will post the grant to www.fremontco.com and to the Fremont County Facebook Page.

Commissioner Bell noted that the program is available to everyone and people can visit the Commissioner's Office to obtain information and an application. She also expressed caution over the grant since the County's CARE Act spending was thoroughly audited. Commissioner Bell then thanked County Manager Bryant and Grant Administrator Rachel Miller for their work on the grant program.

Commissioner Grantham moved to approve Resolution No. 9 Establishing a grant program with American Rescue Plan Act Funding. Commissioner McFall seconded the motion. Upon Vote: Commissioner Grantham, aye; Commissioner McFall, aye; Commissioner Bell, aye. The motion carried by unanimous consent.

Commissioner McFall clarified that the grant survey that was previously on the website was not an application.

Commissioner Bell noted that whoever qualified for the CARE Act also qualifies for this grant.

6. Resolution No. 10 Amending the March 2019 Edition of the Fremont County Personnel Policies and Procedures Manual, Chapter 6, Working Conditions

Human Resources (HR) Director, Robert Trainor explained that they are requesting an addition to the personnel policy that would allow departments to establish guidelines regarding labor outside the department.

Commissioner Bell noted it is a restrictive policy and will require a lengthy process for one to telecommute.

Commissioner Grantham discussed how not every position in every department is eligible to telecommute.

HR Director Trainor agreed that the benefit will not be available to certain positions.

Commissioner Grantham asked whether the requests will need HR approval.

HR Director Trainor confirmed this and added that it would need County Manager approval as well and would be closely monitored once in effect.

Commissioner Bell noted that the policy will go into effect immediately once approved.

6.45 Teleworking

The purpose of this policy is to define the teleworking program (also known as telecommuting) and the guidelines and rules under which it will operate. The Policy is designed to help managers and employees understand the teleworking environment and their associated responsibilities. The telework policy and its accompanying guidelines provide a general framework for the Fremont County Commission (hereafter 'the County') employees with whom the County arranges and approves telework. It does not attempt to address the special conditions and needs of all county employees or departments.

A. DEFINITIONS

Eligible Positions: A position having measurable or qualitative results oriented standards of performance that is structured to be performed independently of others, with minimal need for support and which can be scheduled to participate in teleworking without impacting service quality or organizational operations. The eligibility of a position may change depending on circumstances.

Eligible Employees: An employee, in an eligible position, who has been identified by the employee's supervisor as satisfactorily meeting performance standards, terms and conditions of employment of their position and has completed all departmental mandatory training. The employee shall have no active formal disciplinary actions on file for the current or immediately preceding review period.

Primary Workplace: The teleworker's usual and customary workplace.

Alternate Workplace: Off-site location where the employee teleworks from, including but not limited to the employee's residence, other government office, public locations with secure internet access, etc.

Teleworker: An employee who for at least one or more days in a particular pay period works an alternative workplace to produce an agreed upon work product.

Teleworking Agreement: The signed document that outlines the understanding between the County and the employee regarding the teleworking agreement.

B. COUNTY PARTICIPATION

Telework may not be suitable for all employees and/or positions. Departments may implement teleworking as a work option for certain eligible employees based on specific criteria and procedures consistently applied throughout the department. County Departments can implement the County teleworking policy by outlining the specific administration of it by:

1. Establishing expectations for employee performances and monitoring of performance;
2. Identifying eligible employees;
3. Identifying eligible positions suitable for telework;
4. Determining office-like space required;
5. Determining if County equipment will be provided;

6. Establishing how the employee will maintain regular contact with customers, office, coworkers, and their supervisor;
7. Determining how the department will handle restricted access materials, security issues and taking electronic or paper records from the primary workplace;
8. Ensuring that practices are consistent with County Telework Rules and Policies; and
9. Ensuring that individual work schedules and reporting for non-exempt employees are in compliance with FLSA regulations and County Policies.

County departments shall also require a Teleworking agreement. The teleworker Agreement documents the mandatory policies in effect and the results of any other agreements between the department head and the teleworker. The agreement, containing the terms and conditions of teleworking, must be signed by both parties prior to the start of teleworking. The agreement must be reviewed and renewed at least annually to ensure that the guidelines for participating in the program indicate continued eligibility and are well understood. A supervisor may elect to review the agreement when a need arises. In addition, the teleworking agreement must be reviewed and revised if necessary when there is a change in supervisor, department head, job responsibilities, work circumstances or performance.

The agreement shall cover topics including but not limited to the following:

1. Employee performance expectations and monitoring;
2. Liability and workers compensation;
3. Safety – employee must self-certify that the alternate workplace is safe and conducive to work;
4. Equipment – Responsibility and use of personal and County equipment at alternate work site and inventory of County equipment used outside the primary workplace;
5. Security – Taking records away from primary workplace, accessing the County's computer system, and accessing information over the internet.
6. Work Schedule – When and where the employee will telework and procedures for overtime and leave approvals;
7. Accessibility – How the employee will keep in communication with clients, coworkers, supervisors and those the employee may supervise while teleworking;
8. Expectations of the supervisor and employee - Terminating the agreement, reimbursement of expenses, and standards of conduct. Any teleworker must sign a Telework Agreement and complete any teleworking training

C. EMPLOYEE PARTICIPATION

Offering the opportunity to work at an alternate workplace is a management option and is not an employee right. An employee's participation in the teleworking program is entirely voluntary. The employee, supervisor or department head may terminate teleworking without cause. Teleworking is a work arrangement between an individual employee and their supervisor and Department Head.

The teleworker's conditions of employment remain the same as for non-teleworking employees. Employee salary, benefits and employer sponsored insurance coverage will not change as a result of teleworking. The employee shall adhere to all county policies, rules and regulations while teleworking.

The employee agrees not to conduct personal business while on official duty status at the alternate workplace.

Workplace Self-Certification: As a condition of permission to telework, the employee must verify that alternate workplace used for teleworking purpose is safe and suitable for the purpose of the employee's work. The department may deny any employee the opportunity to telework if the alternate workplace is not conducive to productive work. The department should provide the employee a self-certification checklist, as a part of the application to telework. The checklist is necessary to reduce the County's exposure to risk and liability and helps the employee know if their alternate workplace is conducive to productive work.

D. WORKSPACE AND WORK HOURS

A defined workspace and defined work are necessary 1) to reduce the Count's exposure to risk 2) to facilitate proper management of teleworkers and, 3) to ensure work is done in a productive environment.

Workspace – The teleworker shall designate a specific workspace at the telework location and will conduct work from that location. The employee shall maintain a clean, safe workspace that is adequate for work and free of obstructions or distractions. Use of an unapproved site is not allowed.

Work Hours - Each employee that teleworks shall follow their current, regular work schedule unless employee and supervisor both agree in advance to any changes in the employee's work schedule. Non-exempt (hourly) Employees must obtain approval from their supervisor before performing overtime. A non-exempt employee working overtime without such approval may cause the County to terminate the teleworking option and/or take other appropriate disciplinary action. The employee must obtain approval in advance from their supervisor before taking leave during a designated telework agreement.

The employee must maintain contact with the office as specified in the work schedule, department policy and telework agreement. An employee's personal activities must be outside the time of work or outside the place designated for telework.

E. EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES

General- Office supplies (e.g. pens, paper, etc.) shall be provided by the County and shall be obtained during the teleworker's in-office work period. The employee is expected to use their own furniture, telephone lines, internet connection, and other equipment (except for any equipment provided by the County). Any use of private facilities of the employee will be at the employee's discretion and not at the behest or expense of the County. This applies to all physical improvements and conveniences as well as service.

Assignment of Portable Equipment on a Temporary Basis- Departments may give written permission for certain equipment (i.e., computers, cell phones, etc.) to be checked out and used at the alternate workplace.

F. SECURITY AND ACCESS TO INFORMATION

The teleworker is responsible for maintaining confidentiality and security at the alternate workplace, as the telework would at the primary workplace. The employee must protect the security and integrity of data, information, paper files and access to the County computer system. The County's Technology Policies apply to teleworking, as they would in the primary workplace.

G. EXPENSES AND COMPENSABLE TIME

An employee may work from an alternate workplace that has been approved by the County. The teleworker is responsible for the cost of internet, maintenance, repair and operation of personal equipment not provided by the County.

H. LIABILITY

The employee's alternate workplace is an extension of the department workspace only when used performing official work duties. Employees may therefore be covered for worker's compensation if they are injured while performing work on behalf of the employer in the employee's alternate workplace during telework hours.

If an injury occurs during teleworking hours, the employee shall immediately report the injury to the supervisor. The employee and supervisor must follow the County's policies regarding the reporting of injuries for employees injured while at work. The employee agrees to fully cooperate with any such work investigation to include inspection of the alternate worksite upon reasonable notice during the employee's agreed upon teleworking hours.

The County is not responsible for any injuries to family member, visitors and other third parties in the employee's alternate workplace. The teleworker may not have business guests at the alternate workplace or any other location except the County's offices. The County will not be responsible for any loss or damage that the teleworker's real property, including any structures and structures attached thereto; any personal property owned by the teleworker, or any of the teleworker's family members.

Employee also agrees that the County is not liable for any claims, injuries or damages that the employee incurs while teleworking (except legitimate and accepted injuries covered by applicable workers' compensation law).

Individual tax implications, auto insurance, homeowner's insurance and residual utility costs are the responsibility of the teleworker.

I. CHILD AND DEPENDENT CARE

Telework is not a substitute for childcare or dependent care. The teleworker shall continue to make arrangements for child or dependent care to the same extent as if the teleworker was working in the primary workplace.

J. RENEWAL OF TELEWORK AGREEMENT

The Teleworker Agreement must be discussed and renewed at least annually, whenever there is a major job change, or whenever the telework or supervisor changes positions. Because teleworking was selected as a feasible work option based on a combination of job characteristics, employee characteristics, and supervisory characteristics, a change in any one of the elements require a review of the teleworking agreement.

K. REPORTING

Each department head is responsible for submitting a monthly report to the County Manager indicating the employees approved for telework.

L. EXCEPTION TO THE POLICY

In individual extenuating circumstances, the department head, at their discretion may grant an employee an exception to this policy if 1) the supervisor recommends an exception, 2) the quality and quantity of the employee's work does not decline, and 3) if the exception will not cause a disruption to the productivity and work flow of the department.

Exceptions to this policy may also be made by the County Manager, in consultation with the Board of County Commissioners, in the event of a community emergency that is severe enough to warrant closure of some or all County offices and suspension of business services to the public. The County Manager's response plan will provide the structure necessary to ensure the safety of county employees and continuity of County services.

The County will establish procedure detailing how employees should proceed during such and emergency situation. In such an event, teleworking may be implemented by the County Manager on short notice without fulfilling all the aforementioned requirements or finalization of the telework agreements laid out in the policy. Employees should reach out to their supervisor regarding work from and alternate workplace requirements and procedure in such an event. Under such temporary events, an employee may be required to report to their primary workplace one or more days per week.
